

Functional Safety for Project Manager

14:30 to 16:30h

14:30 – 14:50

Introduction – Functional Safety

1. Why do we work with standards?
2. What is Functional Safety about?
3. Functional safety in different business areas

14:50 – 15:00

Time for questions

15:00 – 15:40

Introduction – ISO 26262 – For Project Manager

4. Part 1-12 and structure of the ISO 26262
5. Where does the „ASIL“ come from? (Hazard and Risk Analysis)
6. Which tasks are coming from the standard?
7. Involved departments in an organisation

15:40 – 15:50

Time for questions

15:50 – 16:20

Introduction – ISO 26262 – Necessary Documentation

8. Safety Case
9. Which documents are necessary?

16:20 – 16:30

Concluding round

Outlook
further modules:

Introduction – especially for Functional Safety Manager Methodological procedures

- TOP-method for fulfilment of standards for FuSa
- Which analysis at which time?

„FSM“ during everyday life

- How does a functional safety manager actuate during his/her everyday life
 - „Do’s and don’ts“
-

In our training, you learn how to quickly and effectively implement functional safety in your occupational routine. We combine theoretical knowledge with exercises and still have time for questions.